CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

We are very excited to be 'back on track' post covid and firming up plans in our League for future meetings and various events.

Officially, Saturday, April 26th, marks the feast day of our patroness, Our Lady of Good Counsel. Historical church records indicate Mary, under the title Our Lady of Good Counsel, had been chosen as the League's patroness.

However, we will gather on Thursday, April 20th at 1 pm to honour Our Lady of Good Counsel, followed by a general meeting in the church hall.

Since the month of May is also devoted to Our Lady, we will have our annual Crowning on Thursday, May 4th, at 7 pm, also followed by a general meeting.

Since these have been and are important and significant events in our League, we urge you to make the time and join the members for these special occasions.

In spite of Covid, we are pleased many members have renewed their membership. Do come on out and meet our new executive! Check out the fun and interesting plans happenings in our League, we also need your thoughts and ideas. Remember new members are always welcome! Also remember to check your emails for other upcoming special dates and times.
