VOCATION VIEW

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 21, 2024

When the apostles were trying to reflect on their ministry, Jesus asked them to "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." Listening to God in quiet prayer is very important in vocation discernment. Listen to God's voice in an out-of-the-way place. If you feel the call is genuine, call Fr. Mark Morley, Director of Vocations, Diocese of Hamilton at 905-528-7988. email: vocations@hamiltondiocese.com

† Thank you

Deacon Richard and Linda Petsche would like to thank you, the members of St. Patrick Parish, here in Burlington, for celebrating Richard's retirement as your deacon for 16 years in June of 2024.

It was a memorable occasion and we are touched by the abundant generosity of the parish ministries, and also of the individuals as well as the generosity of the couples and the families in our parish.

By the way, when a deacon is 75 the church law indicates that he is relieved of active duty but remains a deacon. So there will be moments when Deacon Richard will join you in celebrating our parish liturgies as your deacon.

May you all have a blessed summer and may you continue to be a blessing for others.

WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

The date to celebrate is Sunday, July 28, 2024, the 4th World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. This special Day, initiated by Pope Francis, is a precious opportunity to value grandparents and the elderly in our local communities. This year's theme, "Do not cast me off in my old age" (Ps 71:9), highlights the loneliness experienced by many elderly people. In response, we are invited to celebrate a solemn liturgy with grandparents and the elderly and/or to encourage people to visit them, especially those who are isolated. In a world that increasingly sends a message that the elderly do not matter, we are called to let them know they do and that we recognize their worth. Thanks so much for your support of the elderly in your parish and community,

LISTENING TOGETHER: MEDITATIONS ON SYNODALITY

The Office for Evangelization and Catechesis is pleased to offer a summer book club to anyone who would like to explore the meditations of Father Timothy Radcliffe from the Synod gatherings in October 2023. This series of presentations helps us better understand the true meaning of synodality and the importance of discernment in this process. Offered over four sessions, the book club will gather virtually on Wednesday afternoons in July (3,10,17,24) from 1:00-2:00pm for prayer and discussion. This series is free of charge and all are welcome to participate! Registration can be found here: <https://forms.gle/aLzYvo1C28BJ6aw36>
