

Name: _____

St. Ignatius of Loyola Riddles

Solve the riddles using what you have learned about St. Ignatius of Loyola.

Riddle 1:

Born in Loyola, a castle grand, His life transformed by God's command. A soldier's heart, a soul on fire, Who founded a company to inspire?

Riddle 2:

I am something everyone needs, Kindness is my creed. You can't touch me, but you feel me indeed, What am I?

Riddle 3:

A book he wrote, a guide profound, To find God's will, his teachings sound. Exercises deep, for hearts to train, What method did he leave to gain?

Riddle 4:

Rome's approval, a pivotal hour, Recognized his mission's power. With zeal and vision, he paved the way. What year saw his order's official sway?

Riddle 5:

I come in many forms, big and small, Making others smile, one and all. Holding doors and helping with a task, What am I, if not a kind act to bask?

Riddle 6:

What has cities, but no houses; forests, but no trees; and rivers, but no water?

Riddle 7:

In shining armor, brave and bold, With sword and shield, in tales retold. Protector of the realm, with honor and might, Champion of justice, in the day or night. Who am I?

Riddle 8:

In Pamplona, a battle was fought, His dreams of glory came to naught. Struck down and laid upon his bed, In recovery, where was his heart led?

Riddle 9:

At the end of his journey, in Rome's embrace, His spirit soared to eternal grace. A legacy left, for hearts to be stirred, Whose life and teachings still echo, unheard?

Riddle 10:

I'm something shared without a cost, Spreading joy and love, not lost. It's not a game or a treasure you find, Yet, it enriches both heart and mind.

Come back next week for the answers!